

ABSTRACT

The long-free vortex multi-compartment separation chamber cyclone apparatus features of the decreased pressure drop increase both capacity and separation efficiency as well as of ability to be adjusted to the solid particles distribution of the feed processor.